Fred Haynes, Mike White, and Ronald Matheney

All senior classes have a class clown, a "Mr. Cool," a class jinx, and a "class brain." But how many senior classes have preachers? Although this may seem unusual, this is the case at Crossett High.

Fred Haynes, Ronald Matheney, and Mike White have gone into the ministry. In their own words, they have been "called by God" and have decided to devote their lives to preaching His word.

Janet Nichols competes during rodeo.

"Ride 'em cowgirl," is a phrase Janet Nichols has heard all her life. Janet has been riding horses since the age of six. Janet placed sixth in state competition in '78. Janet has also won 200 trophies in competition on her horse, Tom Parker.

Glen Womble works with one of his snakes.

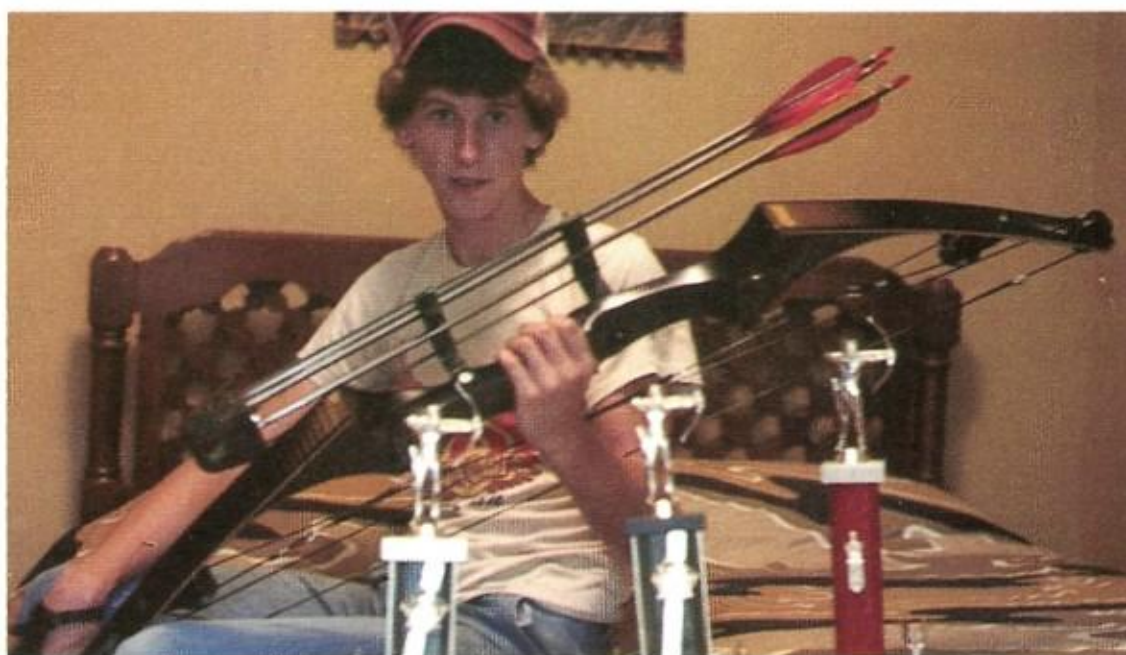

Glen Womble

Glen Womble, a sophomore at CHS, has an unusual kind of hobby. He has been interested in herpetology, the study of reptiles, since about the age of ten. Glen has killed many different kinds of snakes and has been bitten several times, but only once by a poisonous one. Glen kills the snakes, dries their skin, and makes belts with them. He also enjoys tanning hides.

Mark Young, the Robin Hood of CHS, spends a great deal of time in the woods. But he is not chasing Maid Marion or forming revolutions against the kingdom; rather, Mark bow hunts. That is the only thing that Mark has in common with the green hero of Sherwood forest.

Mark has picked up bow hunting as a hobby. As a result of his practicing, Mark has become rather good at it. He has won several tournaments around the state of Arkansas. Besides bowing for trophies, Mark also goes out during the bow season for many game such as deer and turkey.

Mark Young shows his trophies, bow, and arrows.

The Houdini of CHS, Brett Boyer, enthralls his audiences with his magical ability. Brett, a senior, has been interested in magic since about the age of 12, when he got a magic kit for Christmas.

Brett has always been inspired by Houdini and all his books and tricks. He orders his tricks from Little Rock, but improvises them to his own liking.

Brett Boyer demonstrates his magic.

It was one day up on top of his mountain when coon huntin' wasn't doing very well that Mr. Cecil Ritter just picked up a block of wood and began to whittle. Ever since that time Mr. Ritter has whittled objects that have taken up to as long as four hours. One of his favorite articles to work on is the gun.

Mr. Ritter

Several objects whittled by Mr. Ritter

Daryn Clark and Mike Chisholm moving in for the attack

Now, who's got whom?

Mr. Banks' pigs.

Mr. Banks

"We thought it would be interesting and good exercise, as well as beneficial to learning self-defense." These are the reasons Daryn Clark and Mike Chisholm give for taking judo and Tae Kwon Do for one and a half years. They have become second degree brown belts.

They have participated in judo tournaments and ranked high in their divisions.

Mike and Daryn hope to proceed to Black Belts and later instruct classes themselves.

"Ninety-six little piggies went to market . . ." is Mr. James Banks' version of the nursery rhyme. Mr. Banks is a modern day replica of Old MacDonald.

He has assorted farm animals such as chickens, ducks, geese, cows, and pigs. These fine friends of his roam over a forty-acre farm in Warren.

Remember when you used to make a detour on the way to the water fountain so you could catch a glimpse of him in class.

Remember when you drove by her house every day even when you knew she wasn't home.

Remember when you always found an excuse to talk to your friend with a locker next to his.

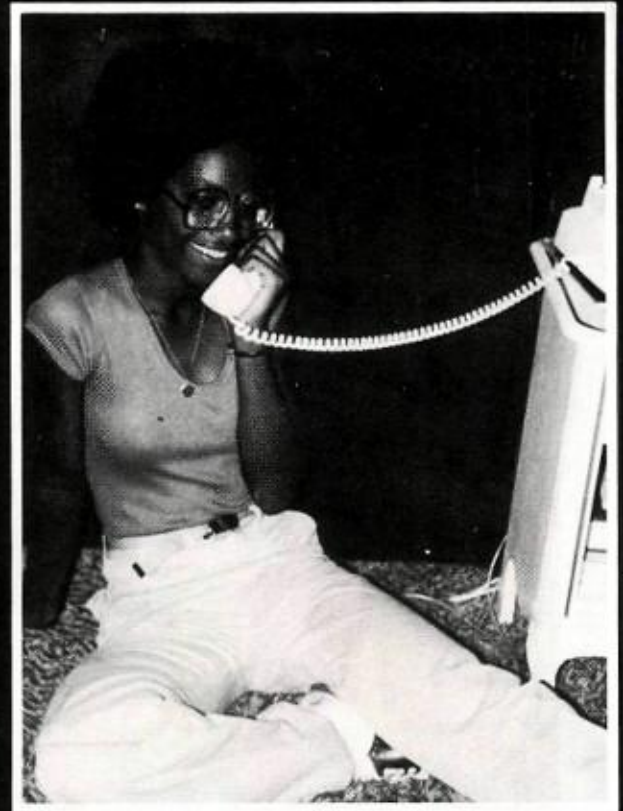

Remember when you wished she was there for the 999,999 times you did it perfectly but of course she would show up for one time you did it wrong.

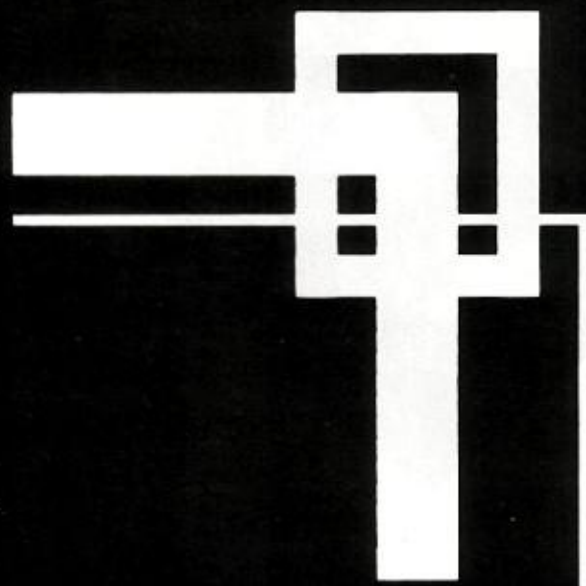

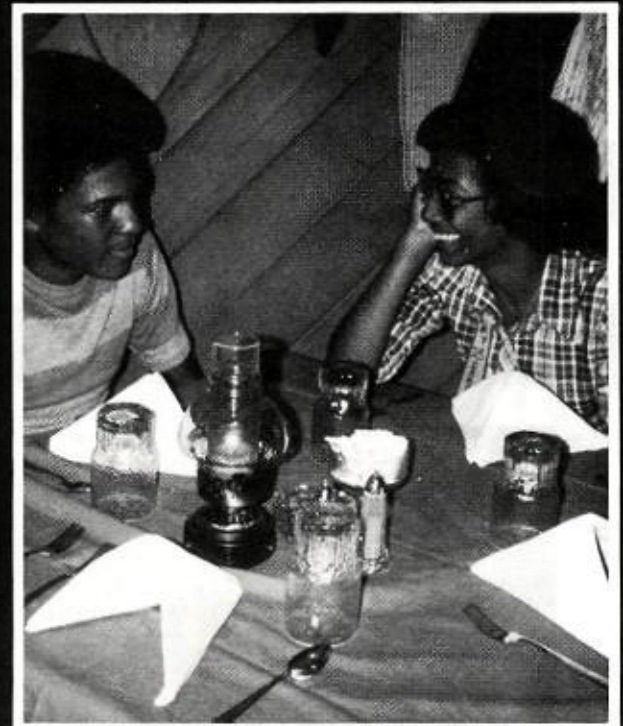

Remember when everything went just right!

(After dialing her number 39 times, I finally let the phone ring. When I heard her father's deep voice answer, I began to think I should have stopped at 38!) "Sherri, would you — I mean — do you want to go out tonight?"

"I thought we'd get a bite to eat first." (someplace inexpensive and quick!) "Dinner would be great!" (soft music and candle-light.)

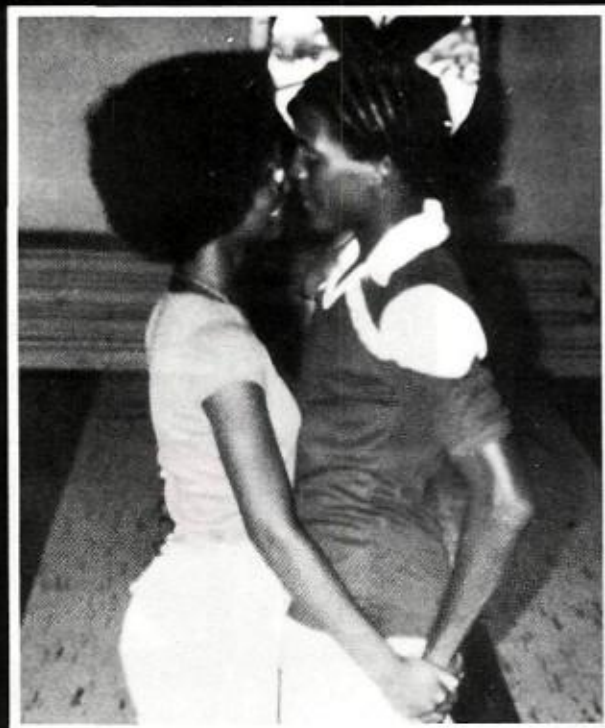

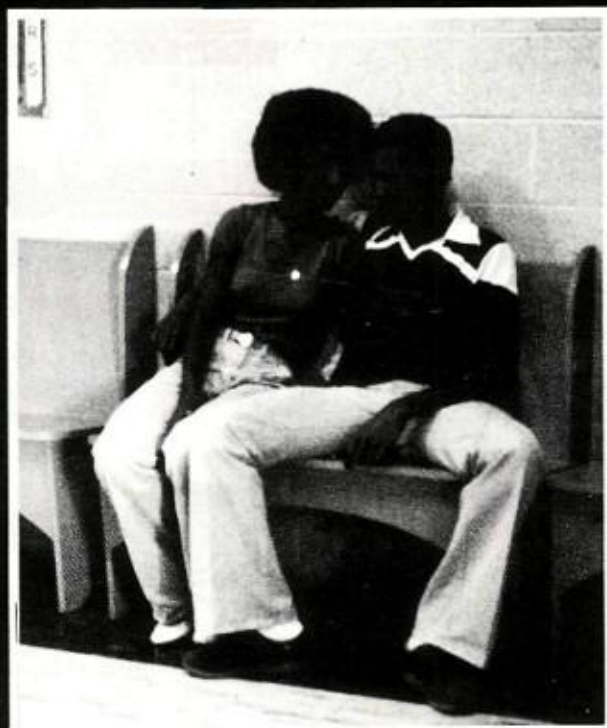

"Sherri, I just thought of something. This isn't leaving much time for just us, and it's beginning to sound expensive. Why don't we go for a walk in the park?" "That sounds just fine, Ricky."

of a date

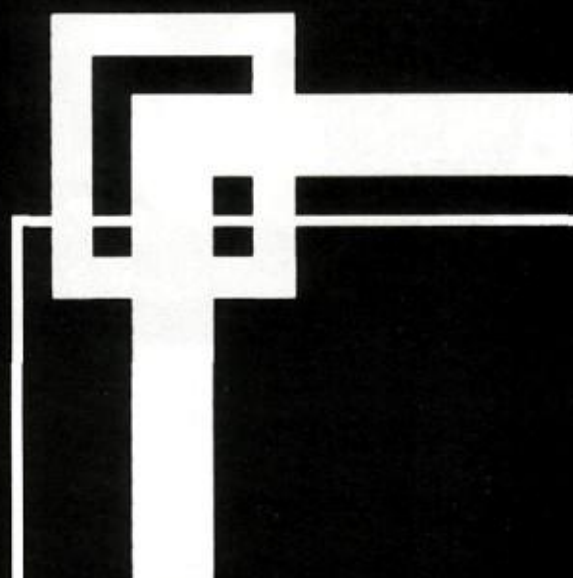

(It's about time he got the hint! I wasn't even sly walking past his locker so many times a day.) "Sure! What should I wear?" "Oh, whatever's comfortable."

"Then we could go to the dance. I hear the band's pretty good." (there ought to be some pretty good dark corners.) "I've heard about the band, too. They're supposed to play a lot of slow songs." (It will be so sweet with the lights down low!)

"Looking back on it, the time sure did go by fast!"

Students are doing their own thing, from the cars they drive to the things they do in their spare time. These activities change constantly. They are only fads, and they change as often as the days.

As people change, so do their fashions. At first it seems that there's an odd ball in the crowd dressed differently from the rest. Then, before you know it, everyone's wearing that same outfit. From hairdos to shoes, everything's changing. Fluorescent shoes, clear plastic shoes, plain old tennis shoes, long shirts, big shirts, neck ties, khakis, terry cloth shirts to everyday T-shirts and jeans. It's all the fashion of today.

Staters and Scholars Honored

Ernie Bauer and Paul Harris represented CHS at Boys' State in Conway this past summer. Hearing a speech by David Pryor was a highlight of the week-long training session in how local and state governments work.

Kathy Andrews, Tammy Campbell, and Sandra Scarlett were chosen by a faculty committee in the spring of '78 to attend Girls' State. In a week of activities at Ouachita Baptist University, the girls set up a model government patterned after the state of Arkansas.

Watty Strickland, Robert Matheney, and Mark West were the three Georgia-Pacific scholarships awarded to Crossett seniors. The winners were announced by Superintendent Hugh Willis in a special assembly.

Mark is putting his scholarship to use at Louisiana Tech, while Robert is at the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville, and Watty is at Ouachita Baptist University.

'Memories' for Class of '78

Welcomed by a speech from Class President Robert Matheney, the seniors of '78 began their Prom. Vice-President Jessie Clark started the entertainment by introducing the junior waitresses. After a skit by some seniors of '78, Marcia Broadway showed a slide presentation while Tim Ray sang "The Way We Were." By popular vote, the seniors selected Jim Wiltcher and Suzie Carter as king and queen.

Coach's Comment

Coach McMahan comments: "The 1978 Jr. Eagles had a terrible start in their 29-0 loss to Dollarway Jr. High. Fortunately, we came from being dismal to being a pretty good junior high ball club. Our big games this year were our first win of the season over El Dorado Barton: a 26-24 win over the Magnolia Jrs. in the closing seconds of the game; and the 13-0 win over the Camden Jrs.

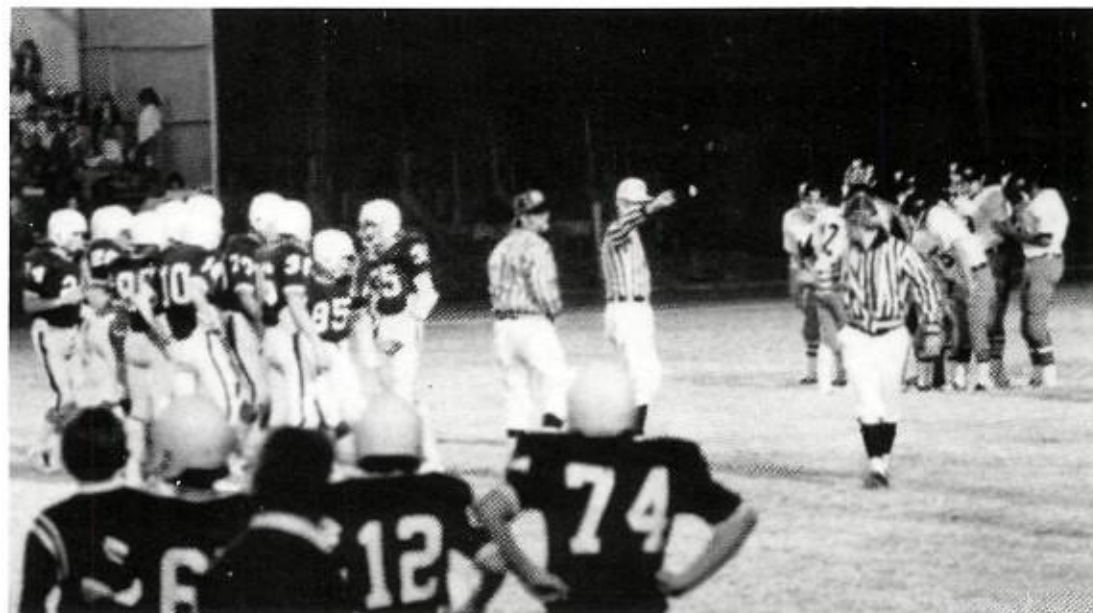

Eagle defense lines up against Camden.

Many times the junior high football squad has to play in the shadow of the senior high team. This was especially true this year. The Sr. Eagles ended their regular season with a 9-1 record and they then went on to win the State AAA Championship, while the Jr. Eagles ended their season with a 6-1-1 record.

The record of the '78 Jr. Eagles, along with the records of the '77 (7-0-1) and the '76 teams (3-4-1), indicates that the senior high team should have a winning season next year. Why? Because the junior team is the foundation for the senior team.

The girls' tennis team last spring won the state tennis tournament for the second consecutive year. The tournament was held at Burns Park in North Little Rock. The competition was tougher this year because the girls played in Class AAA instead of Class A. Joy Harris won the girls' singles title, and Vaughn Clary and Leann Gresham were runners-up in the doubles division.

Whether it's a backyard game of one-on-one or whether it is a game for the District championship, the objective is to win. According to Basketball Coach Wally Rauth, winning in any basketball game is the goal he is aiming for. Coach Rauth also feels that when the team plays to their maximum potential, they will win the game.

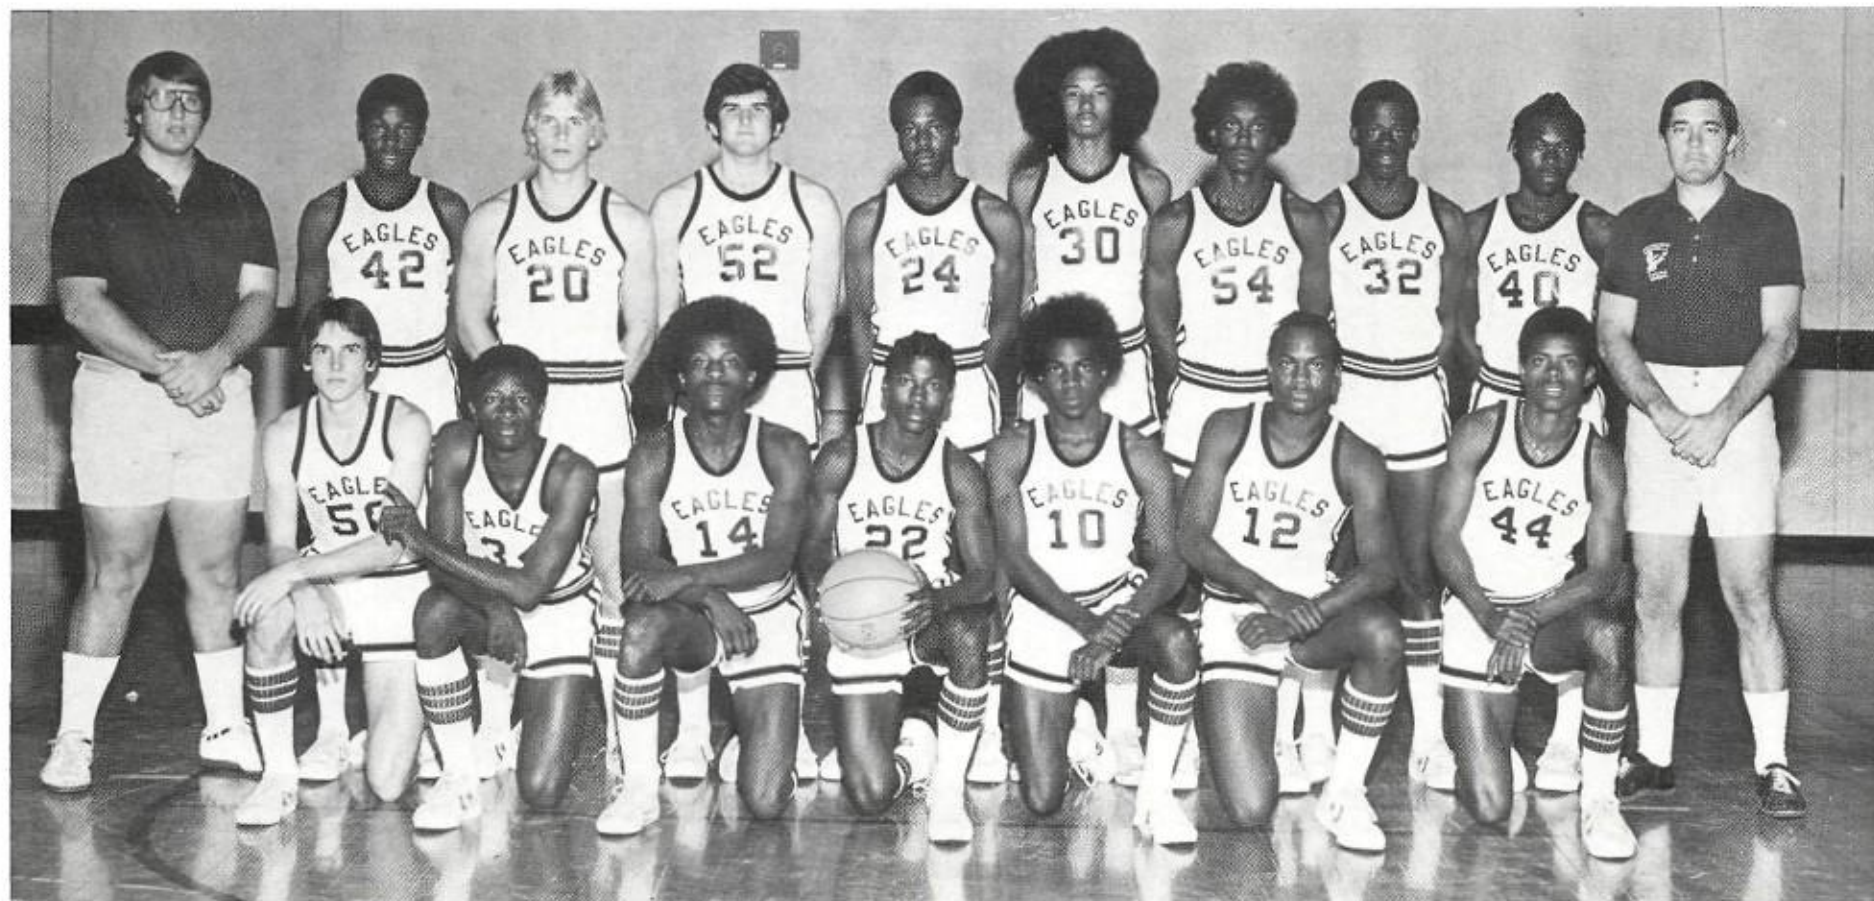

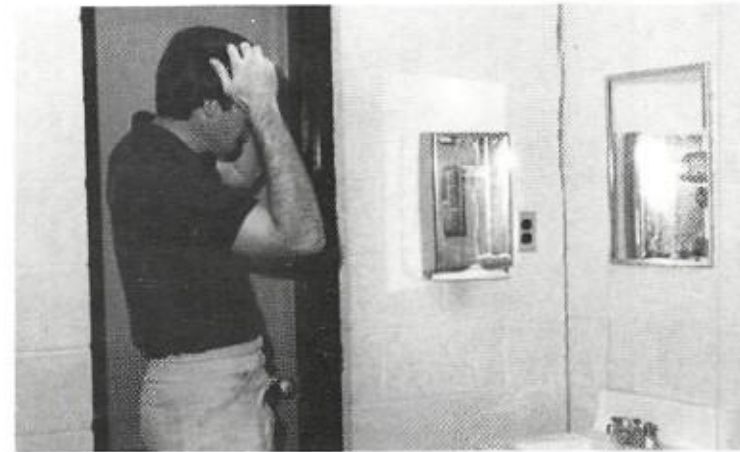

In order to win, you need to have a system. Coach Rauth said that he goes to the player that has been doing well in practice and over a period of several games. This player will put the ball up more in hopes of scoring.

Coach Rauth said that for a young team which had only two returning lettermen, the Eagles have done very well. He said that the Eagles were strong on rebounds, and they seemed to have quickly overcome their inexperience.

In comparison to other teams in the District, Coach Rauth strongly stated, "We're as good as anybody in the District." Of course, the Eagles are as good if not better than any other team in the conference, but only the records will tell.

Jr. Boys Have 'Fine Year'

Coach's Comment

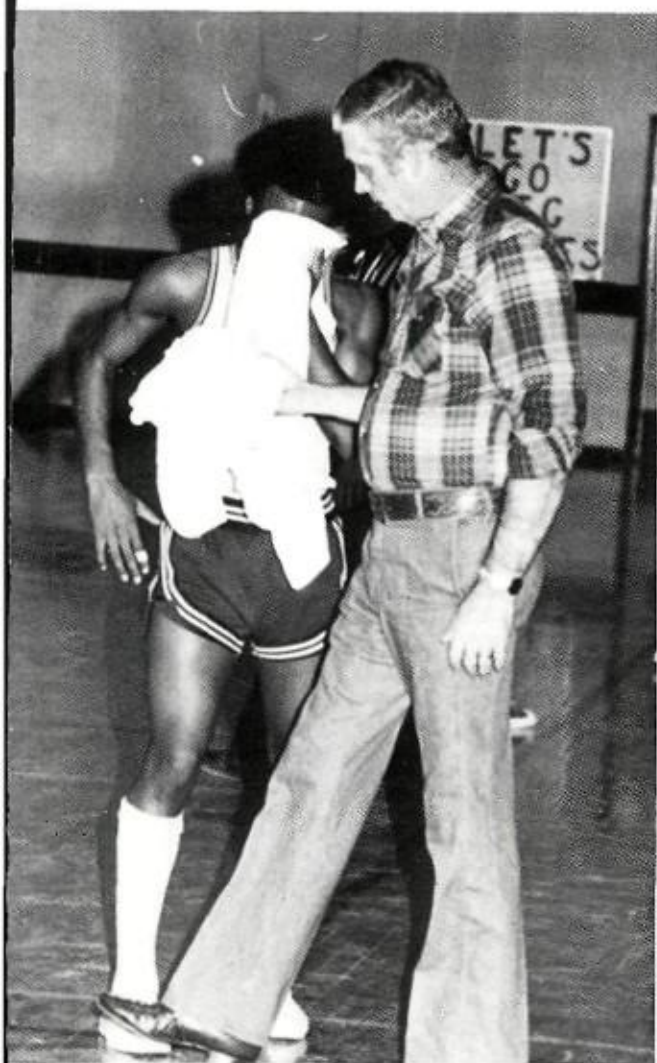

Coach Burnett comments on the Jr. boys basketball: This year's ninth grade basketball team had a fine year. Leaders Mike Loggins and Roderick Kidd helped us in scoring and rebounding.

Sr. Lady Eagles Win Again

December 11, 1978, will go down in the Sr. Lady Eagles' basketball history. It was the first time in a year and a half that the Sr. girls had won a basketball game. They defeated Fountain Hill 56-49 in double overtime. When Coach Thames was asked about the game, she replied, "It's hard to describe it. I went crazy." Here are some replies of the players when they were asked about the game: Karen Phillips — "It (double overtime) was the hardest way to win. The next day we walked down the halls with smiles galore." Billy Gay Clary — "It (the win) was even better when we came to school."

Did you know that 498 girls walk the halls of CHS and Norman? Out of all those girls, did you know that only 28 per cent participate in sports? This does not include the 10 per cent of girls that are involved in cheerleading and Eaglettes.

Out of the 28 per cent who do participate in a sport, 30 per cent play tennis, 24 per cent play volleyball, 25 per cent run track, and 21 per cent play basketball.

Jr. Lady Eagles Start Off Strong

When asked about the Jr. Lady Eagles, Coach Thames replied, "They started off strong, but some girls quit and I had to move a starter to the senior team. It was a disappointment to the girls because she was one of the dependables. It's like starting all over again, but the girls are hanging in there."

It often appears that the CHS cross-country team is running wild, when actually, they are only conforming to the rules of the game. Cross-country is not like regular track competition. The runners do exactly as the name implies; they run cross country. At the meets, the course to be run will often be on a golf course or a large park. The team attends meets on Saturdays during football season.

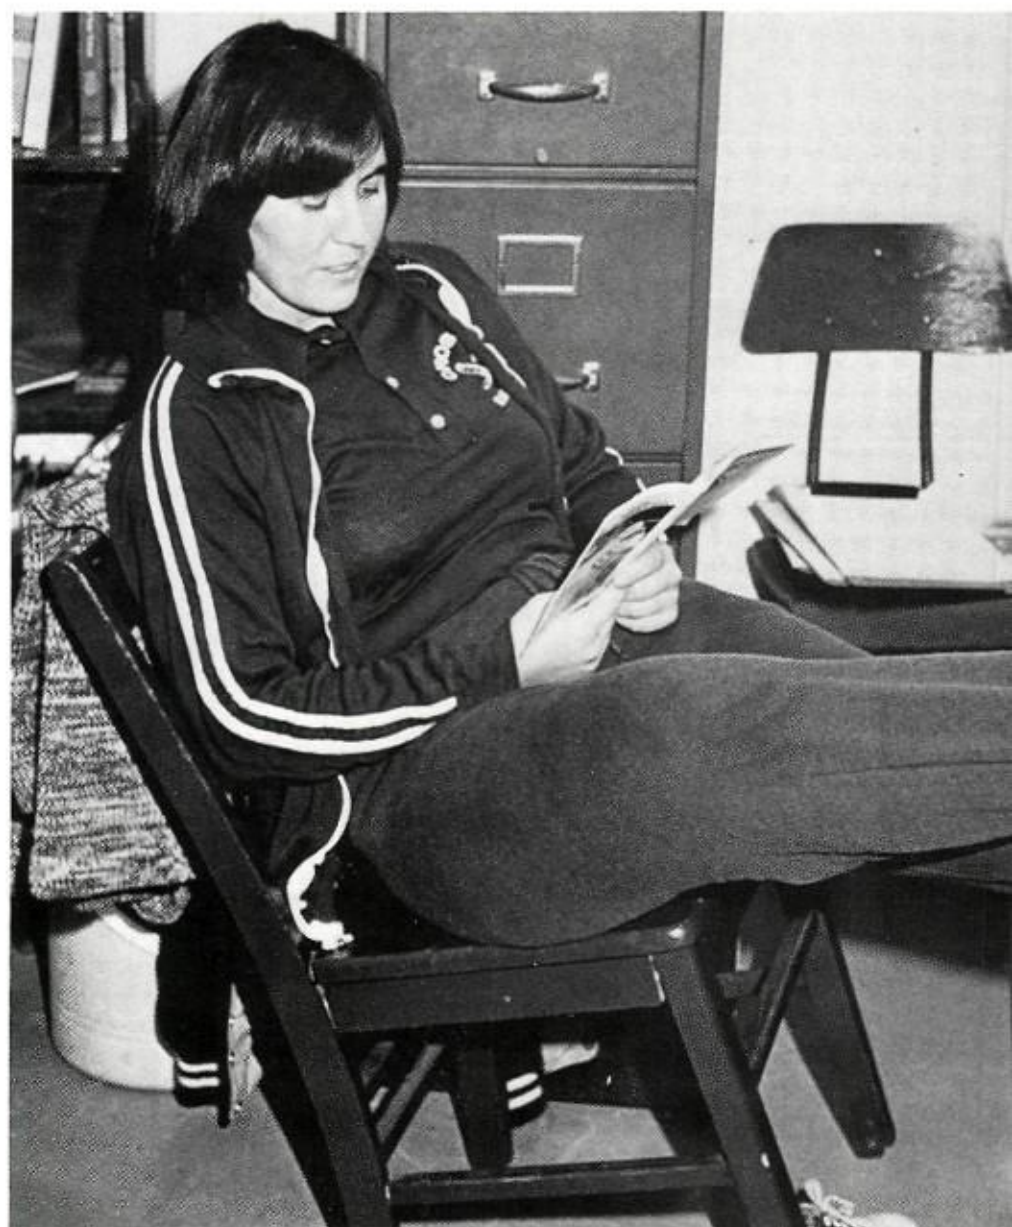

Some members of the track team gather to receive instructions for the day.

Eagle Nine Win a Few

The Eagle baseball team ended their season with one player, Stephen Ashcraft, receiving District awards. Under the coaching of Derrell Smith, the team played such teams as Camden Fairview, Pine Bluff, Dumas, Junction City and White Hall. The team lost some and won some; yet overall, they represented Crossett with pride.

The Games People Played

They went onto the fields with the hopes of winning, and they did just that more than once. The combination of a dream and the ability to make that dream come true gave the Crossett Eagles the trophies, titles, and memories that no one can take from them.

The banner that hung above Main Street.

A glimpse of the state trophy.

They were the beginnings of a new team. They were taught the fundamentals of the game in order to prepare them for a future in football, and they knew how to make those fundamentals work.

They were a young team; they played only a small number of teams.

They hit the ball in the hole and racked up.

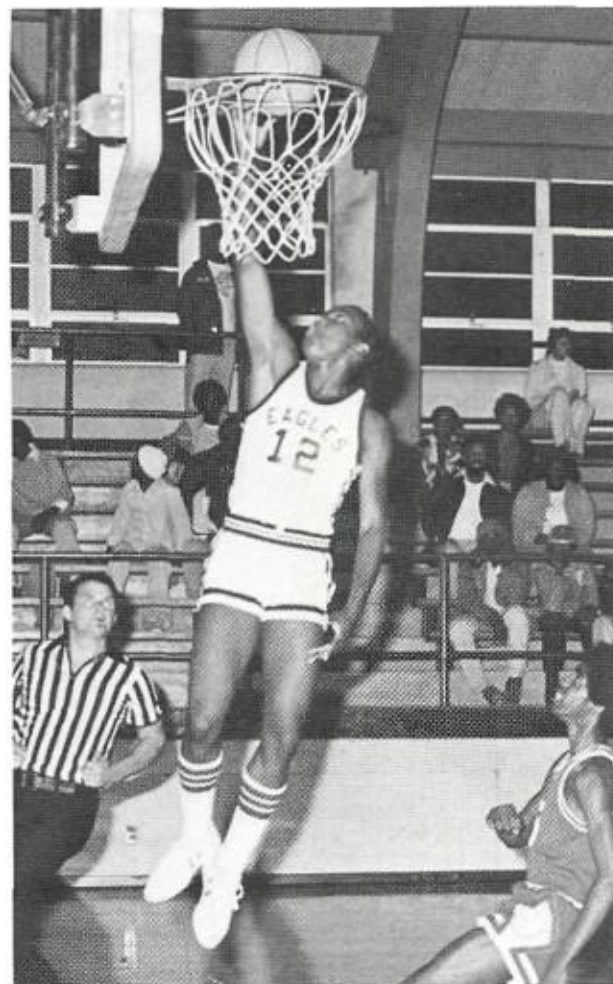

They ran in the strangest places, a different kind of track.

They were inexperienced; they played a good game; and they were satisfied to win a few.

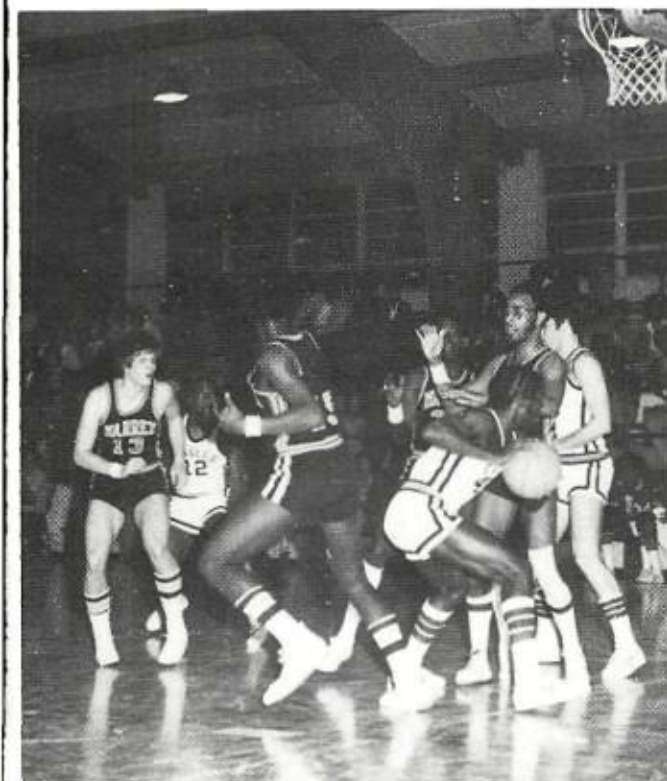

Young athletes in a young program enjoyed learning and playing the game.

They were competing from the bench to play. They played and gained experience in the game they enjoyed.

And Those That Excelled

They played the game they were taught, sometimes winning, sometimes losing.

Leann Gresham and Coach Sullivan, part of the girls' State Champs team.

At Crossett High there is a wide variety of sports that can be participated in by many. Everything from football to golf can be found. Although some programs are much younger than others, each one is growing year in and year out.

In any program, you have those that excel. Although everyone that excelled could not possibly be named, those that contributed to a State Championship are noteworthy.

The games shown here are only some of the games people played during 1978-79.

They were the mile relay team, only part of the whole team that won so many times in District and State meets.

No Rules, No Refs

There are some students at CHS that participate in sports other than football, track, baseball, etc. These students compete more for the fun of the sport than anything else. Although often trophies are awarded for events such as horseback riding and fishing, the pleasure far outweighs the competitive spirit.

The people on these two pages depict only the few students at CHS that are active in a "different sport." Elizabeth Schwartz was part of a canoeing outing that several religious organizations participate in during the summer. Doug Thurman is an experienced horseman. He has won many trophies by just 'horsing around.' Ernie Bauer was part of a ski trip to Tennessee during Christmas.

Elizabeth Schwartz paddles down the Buffalo River.

Just for Fun

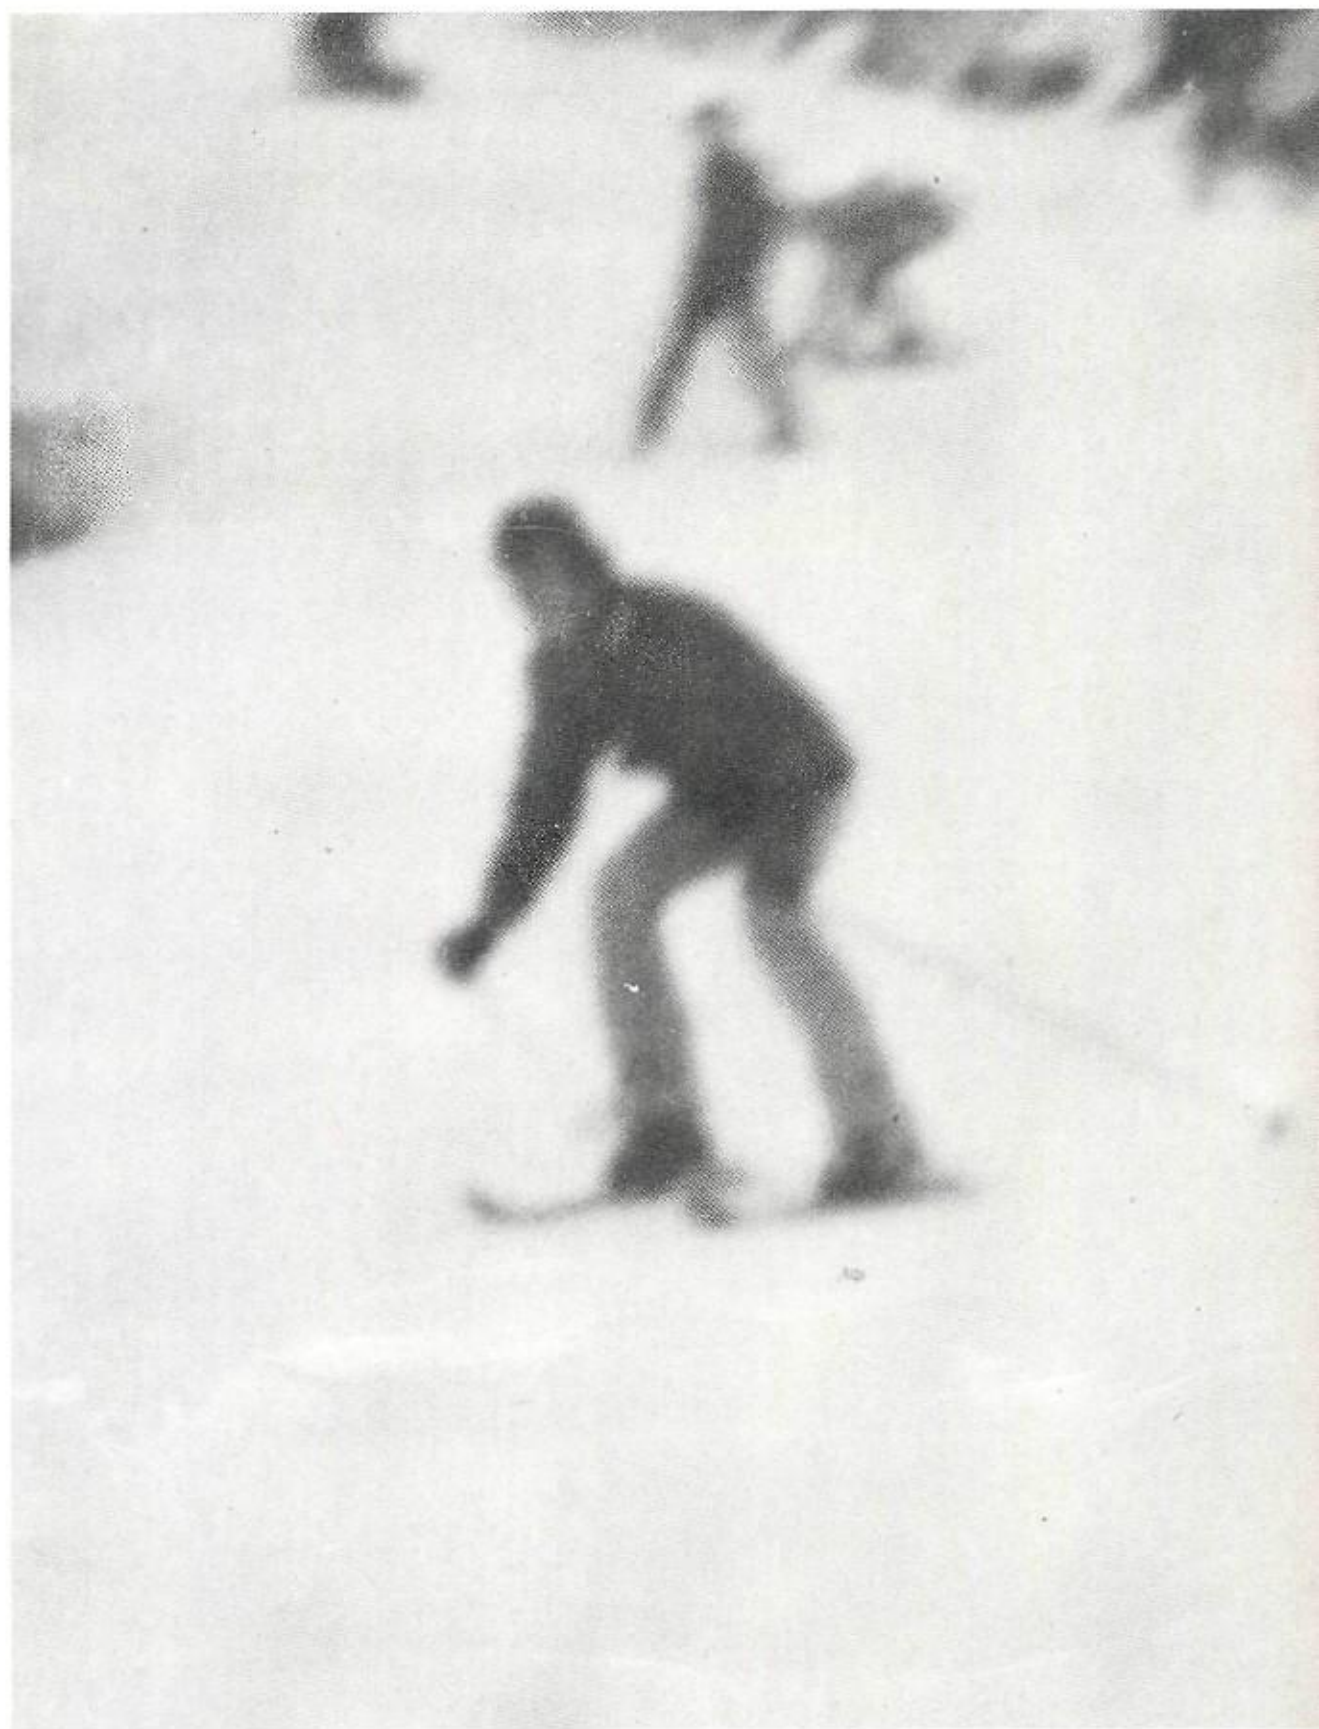

Sports are not always played on fields, governed by rules that are carried out by refs, and won or lost by points. There are some sports that reflect the interests or talents of the participant.

For the graceful skater, being in the rink can bring as much enjoyment as contact sports. While with skateboarding and waterskiing the sport is mostly freestyle, they still can be as enjoyable as a game of basketball.

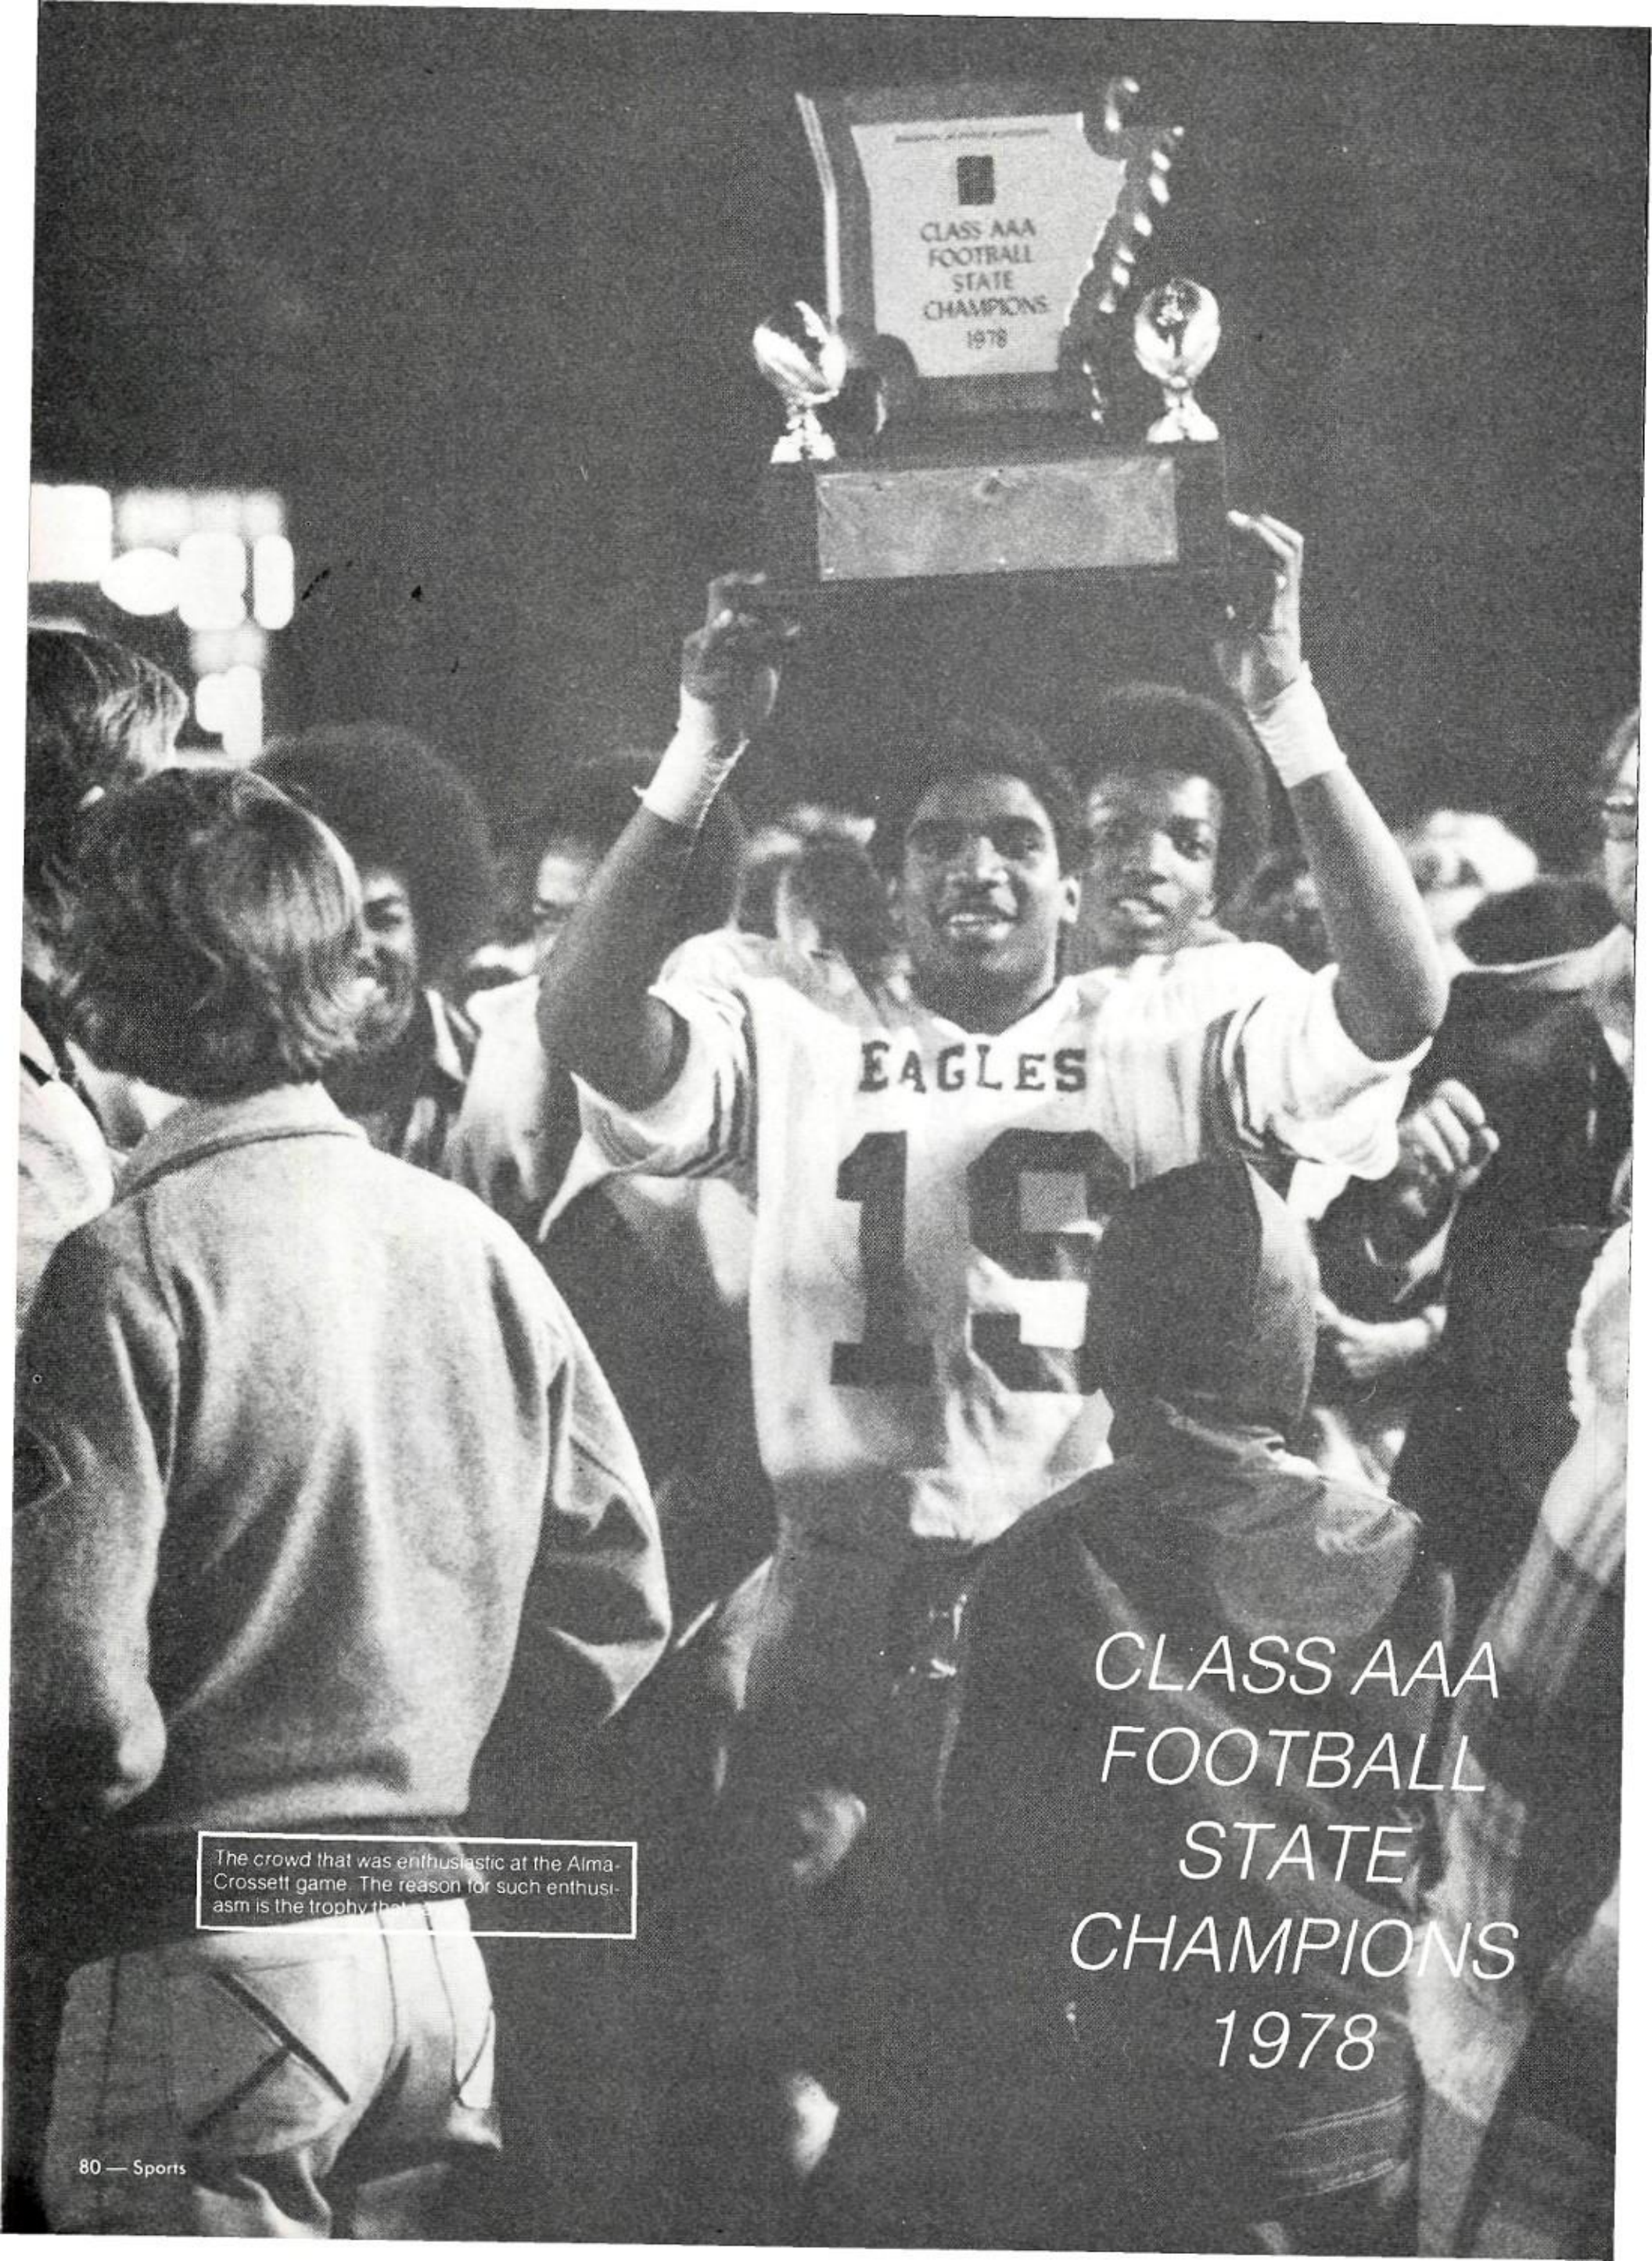

Chess and checkers rely on mental abilities rather than physical strengths, but the "thrill of victory" is still important.

Pool, pin-ball, ping-pong, and hand ball require skill just the same as golf or tennis. The outdoor activities such as boating, horseback riding, fishing, and hunting are as strenuous as a game of tennis.

The sport spectrum is widely varied. There are those that compete to win, and there are those that compete for fun.

Ernie Bauer masters the river.

Fire Marshalls

Don Pierce, Seth Coulter, Jim King, Keith Kidd, Fred Haynes

How would you react if a disaster such as the one at Price occurred here at CHS?

Don Pierce — "First of all I'd throw my book in the fire and then do my fire marshal duties."

Seth Coulter — "In case of a fire, I would do my best in aiding Mr. Cheshier and the teachers in clearing the building as quickly as possible."

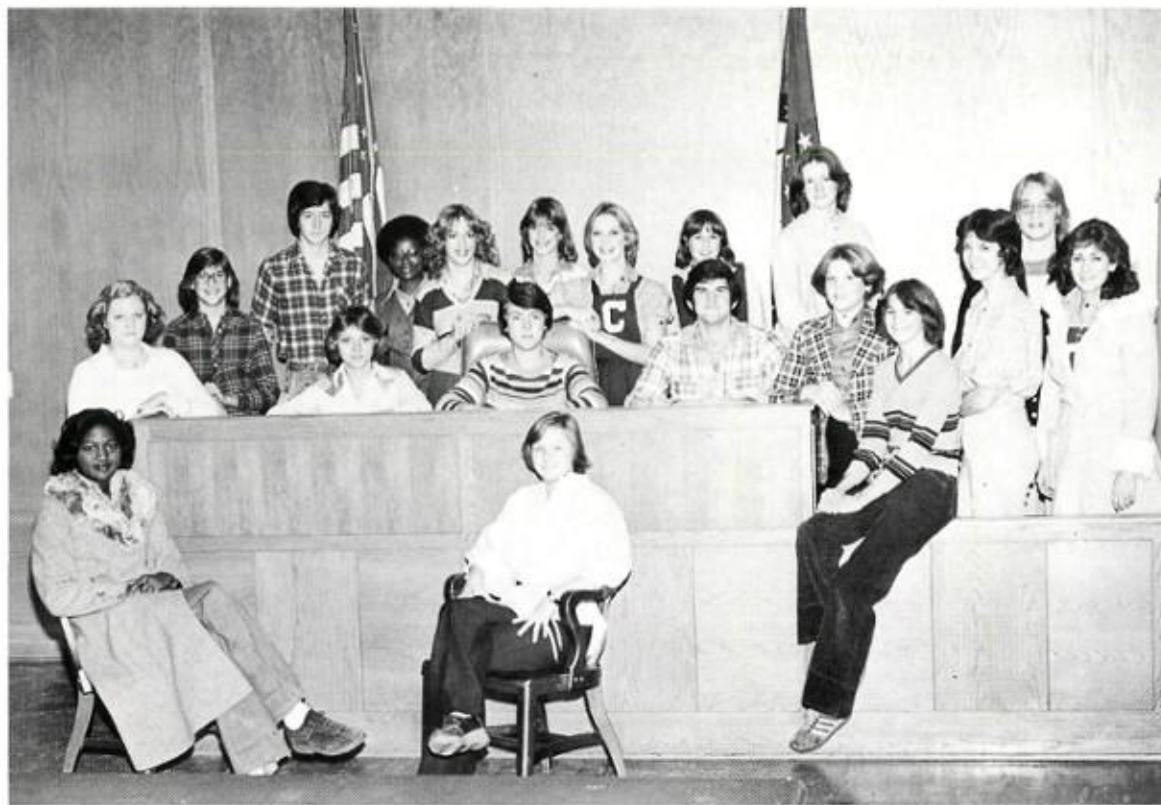

Fred Haynes — "Being a fire marshal, I would do the things that were assigned to me as a marshal, and pray hard while doing so. Saving someone's life is important to me."

Don Pierce shows air horn.

Serious attention to fire drills helps prevent injuries during such disasters as the Price Elementary fire last year.

Do you think that the Student Council should involve itself in school policies, or just in student activities?

Janice Parker — "Yes, I do. The Student Council is not only the organizing club for activities; it is also the representing government body for the school."

Kim McCone — "I think that the Student Council should be involved in everything that concerns the students of CHS."

Kerry Philips holds up the sign for the Living Worst Manor.

What has Freddy Gauss meant to you?

James Talton — "Freddy Gauss has meant more to me than any other ancient mathematicians, other than Mr. Houston and Mr. Stueart, of course. Freddy Gauss has shown the light in the undiscriminating trek for the undeniable and ultimate truth . . ."

Cindy Pratt — "Freddy Gauss has meant a lot of things to me. He is a secret friend to all those who wish to explore the scientific depths of mathematics . . . though never seen, his presence is reflected in Mr. Houston and in math . . ."

Paula Sayger and Lisa Dean — "He kept our mathematical nightmares in context."

What do you enjoy most about shop, and what are some of the projects that the I.A. club has done?

Calvin Harbour — "It's a sensible class, and it prepares you for a career. You get to work with your hands and learn how to make things."

Jeff Sanders — "... The I.A. club has helped the Student Council with a spook house at Halloween and the Eaglettes at Homecoming."

Lance Mayo — "The thing I enjoy most about shop is learning how to build things and how to draw models..."

Mike Williams studies blueprints.

President, Johnny Jordan; vice-president, Lance Mayo; secretary, Jeff Sanders; treasurer, Steve Jones.

Lisa Jenkins, Cynthia Mace, Debbie Barnett, and Stephanie Nutt attend an FCA meeting.

How has FCA helped you in your life at school?

Lisa Jenkins — "FCA has helped me to let God be the center of my life and to know that all things that happen come together for the best."

Stephanie Nutt — "FCA has helped me to learn to handle everyday life situations. I have learned to always put Christ first in everything and through Him we can handle these situations. It also teaches us how to become friends with everyone."

Sara Coulter — "Our FCA is The Fellowship of Christian Girls. Through this I've met lots of new friends and I've become closer to old ones . . . Christ has helped me understand, but most importantly accept, the little troublesome things in school and homelife. It's really terrific!! . . ."

Laura Tullos, Beth Nutt, and Barbara Reynolds study the Bible.

Do you think the Eaglettes are given enough recognition? Why or why not?

Terrisa Martin — "Yes, because the Eaglettes are given special recognition at the pre-game performances . . . No, because many people aren't aware of the long hours of practice put in. People don't know about the Eaglettes' decorating for Homecoming . . ."

Coni Gates — "We've gotten more recognition this year than we ever did before. I believe if we continue to work as hard as we have the past two years, we will receive more recognition, because you can't get anything without working for it."

Renee Nuckles — "No. People just don't realize how hard we work . . . The only way we'll get recognition is if we ask for it, and is that really recognition?"

Why did you choose art as one of your electives?

Rosemary Hill — "I take art class because art moves me. One way it moves me is that I love to draw, and when I get a chance to do what I want to, it makes me happy. Another reason is that I have art fourth period, and I get to leave school after that, so art just moves me on out the door.

LeAnn Clark — "I chose art because I felt that it would help me establish a different outlook on my surroundings. . . ."

Kellye Coulter — "I chose art because I wanted a class where I could sit down and really express my own feelings. . . ."

Loretta Walker — " . . . I agree on taking tests in order to get a grade instead of just receiving them, because I don't like teachers just giving me a grade. I like to earn whatever I receive."

Kim Kirtley — "Yes . . . I think that we should be tested and graded on how we do our work in the library, because we will receive a credit for this class."

Glenda Holyfield — "No, I didn't know that I would be tested, at least not on paper. I thought at first I would get in here and just jive around. But I was wrong! We work hard in the library, and I'm glad it's like that . . ."

Pam Mazzanti — "Yes, I knew that when I signed up for this class I would be graded like any other class. I agree because this insures that the helpers will learn something and will be able to help people who come in . . ."

Do you feel that there is pressure on Varsity by being in the same choral department as Kantorei?

Johnnie Hollis — "I am not under any real pressure being in the same choral department with Kantorei. I think it's just a little stiffer competition, going to the same festivals and competing with a higher grade level. I realize Kantorei is a good choir, and Varsity will have to work hard to do well at festival this year."

David Wallace — "I think it is a different situation because there are only a certain few singing; the blend . . . is very important, and any mistake made by a member will really stick out. The people in Madrigals are supposedly the best of the choir; and therefore, the music is a little tougher than in choir."

Do you think that FSA will give you advantages over other students who aren't in this club? What are they?

Pam Mazzanti — "Yes. You get to see and work with the adult chapter, NSA. This helps you learn what fields are in the business world. This club is good leadership."

Sue Langley — "Yes, I think that FSA will help me in my work when I get out of school. I am secretary of FSA, and I have learned a lot already about being a secretary. FSA is a very fun organization for girls to be involved in. I think that by being in FSA, it will have an influence on my job interviews."

Men's Service

Richie Barnes and Peter Schwartz clean up after lunch.

Do you feel that it is an honor to be in the Men's Service Club?

Richie Barnes — "I feel it is an honor to be on the Men's Service Club because I am able to serve under James Talton."

Eric Karl Toler — "It's an honor to be in the Men's Service Club because you help your school and community and have fun doing it."

James Talton — "Being that I am the president of the Men's Service Club, it must be an honor to be in it. But seriously, the club is an honor to be in, because it is the only club that allows the boys to meet with the leaders of the community at Rotary."

Not Pictured in Group Shot: Steve Richardson and Brian MacDougall

Alan Daws and Marvin Lowe put away plates.

What is your opinion of the high standards required to be eligible for Servitium?

Leann Gresham — "It is a great honor to be a member of Servitium, and many younger girls are striving to meet the required standards. If they didn't have the strict qualifications, some girls could be members who may not care and may not do their job. Servitium wouldn't be the honorary organization it is today, if not for its high standards and qualifications."

Shelia Griffis — "... Servitium is a service club which has very strict rules and moral codes. Because of its high standards, strict rules, and moral codes, Servitium instills a sense of responsibility, a need for activity, and a goal of individuality in each member."

Gubernatorial candidate Bill Clinton speaks at Servitium's political forum.

What were some of your reasons for becoming involved in the DECA program?

Debbi Swan — "I wanted a job and this is the only way an eleventh grader can get out of school for a full-time job . . . I wanted a switch from going to school six hours a day."

Aldo Wimberly — ". . . Some of the reasons I joined DECA were to get a job, make some money, and to get an extra credit . . ."

Anonymous — "Well, I like to work. I like the idea of working while you're young. I think every young person should do so, and not depend on their mom and dad all the time. You should do it for yourself . . ."

Sheila McGilton put shoes on the rack.

Sheila Gammel sells shoes at Trigg's shoe department.

Pat Smith stocks shelves at Dixie Dandy.

Why did you decide to join VICA?

Chris Willis — "Being in VICA gives me a sense of belonging in society. I receive valuable training skill that will benefit me in later years."

Greg Murphy — "I enjoy VICA because I can still receive an education and work. This will provide more security for me in the future."

Eddie May — "My reason for joining the VICA program was that it gives you a start in the working world that many students begin after high school. This program also will prepare you in getting along with others."

Chris Willis makes bows at Baker's.

Do you think that being in FBLA will help you in the business world after graduation?

Paula Sayger — "Yes, the things that Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Rice have taught me will always be helpful. I will always be able to type and take shorthand. I'll never know when I might need these skills."

Lisa Dean — "Yes, FBLA has given me an opportunity to meet people with the same interest from all over Arkansas. Because of this, when I am employed I will be more prepared and will have a better understanding of the business world."

Sharon Walters — "Yes, I feel that I've learned a lot by being in the Future Business Leaders of America. This was my first year, and I really enjoyed it. Standing on our own two feet and reaching out is what we all have to do, and this club has promoted me towards this goal."

Barbie Kelley and Cindy Burke ride a go-cart down Main.

Row 1: Pam Mazzanti, Patty King, Pam Carpenter, Sheila Bethea, Renee Carter, Teresa Mills Row 2: Lisa Jenkins, Angella Bulloch, Cindy Carter

How does it make you feel to make other people happy?

Barbie Kelley — "... I love to see the reactions on all the kids' faces, not only the kids, but the adults, too . . ."

Cindy Carter — "It makes me feel real good knowing that I'm making a little kid smile and laugh. When they come up to you to shake your hand, and you talk to them, they are real excited because they think you're a real clown . . ."

Cindy Burke — "Well, it makes me feel great to make people laugh and to get more acquainted with what all goes into it. There is a lot of work that goes with the fun . . . But when you see those kids' faces light up, and you know you've made them laugh, it makes you feel good inside . . ."

Pam Mazzanti and Patty King carry banner.

Angella Bulloch puts on her make-up.

Do you feel that a homemaker in today's society needs as much experience or more than ten years ago?

Wendy Woods — "Yes, because there are new methods of cooking, new techniques of producing food, new appliances, and a different life style."

Sheila Bethea — "Yes, I think that the home economics system has increased greatly. There are advanced things that people should have to go in and have the knowledge to deal with . . . The machines today are very complicated, and today's homemakers are able to go on the field with knowledge and capability."

FHA member Valerie Kidd

Bussell

Eagle

How do you feel as a member of a school publication?

Kayla Bussell — "Working on the Eagle can sometimes call for hard work but it's really a lot of fun."

Susan Martin — "Even though it's only a small paper, I can look in it with pride saying, 'I helped!'"

Keith Gardner — "After the frustration of not having anything to write about, you feel like you have accomplished something when one of your articles is okayed and published exactly the way you wrote it, which very seldom happens."

Why did you try out for the Termite staff?

Carol Henley — "The reason I tried out for Termite was that I thought it would be fun, and it is, but it's also a lot of hard work."

Glenda Clark — "I tried for the Termite staff because last year I was in journalism with a few students who were already in Termite . . . sometimes they would work on some annual stuff, and if you came a half an inch anywhere near them, they would hide pictures, copy, and everything else in sight. What made it so bad is that I'm nosy anyway! . . ."

Mike Ferguson, Lynette Davidson, and Mrs. Vickie King discuss clubs.

At The Casual Shop we believe that "variety is the spice of life." So we employ a stately blonde from north Crossett, a beautiful silver-haired lady from west Crossett, and a cute Brunette from south Crossett. I line here in town myself.

Whatever your preference may be, we've got you covered - except for a red-head from Unity, and I'm working on that.

You will also find a variety of Jr. and Misses fashions at

THE ANNUAL

The new smell of the annual is already gone,
And its fresh white pages are now scribbled upon.
We've relived many moments both happy and sad,
And realize now how much fun we've had.
Small notes of good luck, best wishes, and such
Are sometimes humorous, but they mean so much.
Some day we'll look back and read of our past,
And say to ourselves, "We sure had a blast!"

Mike,

It been really nice knowing you these past few years. You a real nice guy and fun to be around. Even though you get nasty alot of times. Its been nice having you in English and D.E. We've had alot of laughs in both classes. Maybe we can have some classes together next year.

Just think ~~next~~ ~~year~~ ~~we~~ will be Seniors. That is if we pass. At which I'm planning on passing. Hope you do to.

Stay the way you are now and I'll always be your friend, and you will always make alot of friends. Good luck in the future with the girls.

Friends Always,
Carla

Mike,

It's been nice knowing you. You're a nice guy. Stay sweet. Good luck in the future.
Do you remember Coach Richardson's class, ~~where~~ ^{where} you talked and cheated all the time. Well, not all of the time, just the biggest part of the time. (ha) Remember me when I come looking for a job. (ha)
Stay nice.

Mike!
Do you know me? I know you.
You probably won't remember who wrote this unless somebody tells you. Oh well, stay nice. Good luck in your future friends,
